Your dedicated
24/7 flight ops.

With 15 years of flight planning & dispatch in all regions, our team is skilled and ready to take care of every flight arrangement on this earth. Our goal is to make your operations smooth and your aviation brand trusted. We take care of all aspects of trip preparation, while you can focus on your priorities. And your adventures.

Over the years we have scheduled more than 120 000 flight plans. Every single flight we have learned a detail or a big thing, we have gained precise skills. After so many days in service it all sums up to a proven know how and outstanding operation scheme in this sector.

Our core strength is our people. More than 25 aviation specialists and CAA/FAA certified dispatchers. Experts. Experienced guys with such an amazing motivation to work and engagement. Yes, engagement, it's a precious thing, as when somebody engages, does all it takes to make it happen, to deliver.

We manage various schedules, various crews, various requests and various weather. We master every part of it. With more than 70 aircraft under operations watched daily we have put our job to a different level. We crosscheck, we ask, we listen and deliver. We are here for you, 24/7 whenever you need us.
